

I feel that Broad Band over powerlines would have a horrible effect on HF communications. It would make the Amateur bands almost unusable! This would not only decrease many amateur radio operator's enjoyment but also decrease the reliability for back up communications using Amateur Radio! I ask you to please reconsider the use of powerlines for broad band.